RUSSIANS KILLED.

An Eye Witness Says the Loss at Port Arthur Wednesday and Thursday Was 65.

REPORT THAT PLAGE HAS FALLEN.

It is Asserted in Tokio That the Czar's Troops Virtually Abandoned the Stronghold.

Russians Have Seized All Food Supplies and Other Necessities in Manchuria and a State of Utter Confusion Reigns.

Tien-Tsin, March 14.—Information from an official who was an eye witness of the bombardment of Port Arthur on Wednesday and Thursday is to the effect that the Russians had 25 killed on the battleship Sevastopol, 20 on the Retvizan and 20 in the town. The Russians claim to have sunk a Japanese cruiser.

The Russians assert that their damaged cruisers have been repaired, and are ready for sea. The battleship Czarevitz will be ready shortly. There is no dock here capable of taking in the Retvizan.

The Russians are preparing for the defense of New Chwang, finding it impossible to stop the landing of Japanese.

Tien-Tsin, March 14.—An unconfirmed report has reached here that Port Arthur has fallen.

London, March 14.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tokio says: It is asserted here that the Russians virtually have abandoned Port Arthur.

Pekin, March 14.—Private Chinese reports that are being received here state that the whole of Manchuria is in a state of utter confusion owing to the Russians having seized all food supplies and other commissariat necessities.

The natives are streaming south toward the ports and are suffering great hardships. The late military governor at Kirin has committed suicide owing to his inability to relieve the people's distress or stop the Russian depredation.

Tokio, March 14.—Official and private reports both indicate that Adm. Togo's fourth attack on Port Arthur on the 10th inst. was the most effective since the first assault of a month ago. One Russian torpedo boat destroyer was sunk and several Russian torpedo boat destroyers seriously damaged. The fortifications and city were subjected to a heavy bombardment lasting nearly four hours. The naval bombardments of the land works have generally been ineffective, yet the peculiar topographical conditions of Port Arthur make immunity from serious loss from bombardment impossible. Adm. Togo's torpedo flotilla opened the action by boldly steaming in under the batteries and successfully placing a number of mechanical mines at the mouth of the harbor. Following that there was a desperate bow to bow encounter between the torpedo boat destroyers in which the Japanese appear to have scored a clever victory. Then followed a long range duel between the cruisers, ending in the retirement of the Novik and Bayan, the only Russians engaged.

The closing action was the bombardment of the inner harbor by the Japanese battleships. The latter took a position southwest of Port Arthur and using only their 12-inch guns. There were 24 12-inch guns in a squadron of six battleships and each gun was fired five rounds, making a total of 120 huge projectiles that were fired at the city. The bombardment was deliberate and carefully planned. In order to aid in perfecting the firing, Adm. Togo stationed the cruisers in a position due east of the entrance to the harbor and at a right angle to the battleships. The cruisers observed the range and effect of firing and signalled the results by wireless telegraphy. These observations and reports greatly aided the gunners in their effort to make every shot count.

Adm. Togo was unable to definitely learn the results of the bombardment, but later private reports indicate that much destruction was caused in the bay. There also was damage to batteries.

Capt. Shojiro Asai, commanding the flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers which engaged the Russian destroyers, is the hero of the attack. He had only three destroyers, but attacked the six Russian destroyers, ordering his craft to close in with the enemy. He steamed so close to the enemy's destroyers that they almost touched and a most desperate conflict ensued from which the Russian retired badly disabled.

Salt Lake City, Utah, March 14.—Representative Gentiles of this city held a meeting and took preliminary steps toward the organization of a non-Mormon party.

FEARED HE WOULD FLEE.

Bondsman Shot and Killed William Climer.

Munfordville, Ky., March 14.—William Climer was shot to death on the streets of Munfordville as he attempted to flee from John Finney, his bondsman, who feared that he would leave him to pay the bail bond. Finney discharged his revolver five times at the fleeing man. Three of the bullets took effect. One passed through the back, just above the heart, and two through the head. Climer staggered a few steps and fell dead. Finney was at once placed under arrest. Climer was held on a charge of selling whiskey illegally, and Finney feared that he would "skip" bail. He went to Bowling Green and brought Climer back here in order that he might be again placed in the custody of the officers and the bond released. They called on the jailer and county judge, and were referred to the sheriff. They were on their way to the courthouse when the tragedy occurred. Finney owns a farm in the county and is well connected.

THE DOORS LOCKED.

Climax of a Bitter Factional Fight Between Church Members.

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—The climax of a bitter factional fight between the members of Mead Baptist church, in South Louisville, came Sunday at the Sunday-school hour, when the teachers and children gathered in front of the building and found the doors locked and the janitor standing guard to prevent entrance. The janitor, Charles Coons, a member of one of the factions, became angry when the pastor asked him to unlock the church doors, and told Rev. Mr. Leonard that he had locked the doors by order of the church trustees, and that there would be no services in the church until a new pastor had been chosen. The doors remained closed during the day.

BODY CUT IN THREE PARTS.

Young Girl Instantly Killed on a Railway Bridge.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14.—Miss Kate Barbour, aged 18 years, was instantly killed on a railroad bridge near this city Sunday afternoon by a C. & O. freight. Miss Barbour and two girl companions started to walk across the bridge which spans Benson creek at a sharp curve. Her two companions made their escape but Miss Barbour was so frightened when the train rounded the curve that she stood transfixed and the wheels of the engine passed over her, cutting her body into three parts.

Death of William Rhinock.

Covington, Ky., March 14.—William Rhinock, 53, died Sunday afternoon at St. Elizabeth hospital. He was a brother of former Mayor Joseph Rhinock. For many years he was a traveling man. His father died two weeks ago at the same institution at the age of 92 years.

Barge Line Completed.

Burkesville, Ky., March 14.—The barge line for taking oil from the Cumberland county field up Cumberland river to the pipe line at Fishing creek, has been put in operation. The field, however, produces more oil than can ever be put on the market in this manner.

Heads Are Doomed.

Lexington, Ky., March 14.—It is promised that something will be doing in a political way during the coming week by the present city administration, and that a number of heads are doomed to fall under the official ax, especially in the police and fire departments.

Stricken En Route Home.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14.—People arriving here on the L. & N. train from Louisville Sunday night, say that Lieut. Gov. W. P. Thorne came very near dying on the train, and for ten minutes or more he was believed to be dead. Heart trouble was probably the cause.

A Mysterious Patient.

Lexington, Ky., March 14.—With handcuffs on his wrists and a leather strap around his arms, a well-dressed stranger, who is said to be a prominent business man of Frankfort, was brought to this city and placed in the private asylum of Dr. G. L. Sprague.

Suddenly Lost His Eyesight.

Newport, Ky., March 14.—Joseph H. Ashbaugh, salesman in the wholesale department of the Alms & Doepke Co., dry goods merchants, of Cincinnati, was suddenly stricken blind while dining at his home, 605 Overton street, this city, Sunday afternoon.

Woman's Hall of Fame.

St. Louis, March 14.—It is announced that St. Louis is to have a woman's hall of fame. The project was given the approval of the board of lady managers at a recent meeting.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Charges Against Members of the House of Representatives in the Bristow Report.

COMMITTEE HAS BEEN APPOINTED

Personal Explanation Will Occur During the Consideration of the Post Office Appropriation Bill.

Many Members Feel It a Necessity to Have Congressional Record Contain Explanations of Their Alleged Wrong Doings.

Washington, March 14.—The house will lose no time in acting upon the authorization of an inquiry into the circumstances of the Bristow report. Speaker Cannon appointed a select committee to conduct the investigation.

The committee consists of Representatives McCall (Mas.), Burton (O.), Hitt (Ill.), Metcalf (Cal.), republicans, and McDermott (N. J.), Bartlette (Ga.) and Richardson (Ala.), democrats.

None of these men was mentioned in the Bristow report and none is a member of the committee on post offices and post roads. So far as the republicans are concerned, this is not a political inquiry, but an inquiry in behalf of the dignity and integrity of the house of representatives.

The investigation is not to go beyond the subject of the relations of members of congress to the post office department in the cases specially set forth in the Bristow report.

All sessions at which witnesses are examined will be open to the public and the press.

An extended period of personal explanation undoubtedly will occur in the house during the consideration of the post office appropriation bill which will be called up Monday by Chairman Overstreet. Monday rightfully belongs to the District of Columbia, but there are few local matters on the calendar and Mr. Bahecock will abdicate in favor of the post office bill.

The necessity which many members of the house feel to have the Congressional Record contain certain statements in explanation of their alleged misconduct with the post office department in regard to clerk hire, allowances and rent of post office quarters has led the managers of the house to adopt a most liberal policy with reference to general debate on the post office bill. When these statements are all out of the way the bill will be disposed of and not before.

The bill making appropriations for the support of the military academy will follow the post office bill and as there are no special orders for claims or pensions to interfere it may be that both of these supply measures will be disposed of this week.

NOT A MORMON.

Ex-Senator Joseph L. Rawlins Makes a Denial of the Charge.

Salt Lake City, Utah, March 14.—Former United States Senator Joseph L. Rawlins Sunday sent the following dispatch to Chairman Burrows, of the Smoot investigation committee relative to the testimony of Judge Ogden Hiles, of this city, before the committee Saturday:

"Hon. J. C. Burrows, U. S. Senator, Washington—Judge Hiles' statement that I am a member of the Mormon church is unqualifiedly false. I do not believe in any of its doctrines, dogmas or revelations. Have no affiliations with it. Such has been my attitude in public and in private for 30 years. Give this publicity in your proceedings. J. L. Rawlins."

Robb to Succeed Hoyt.

Washington, March 14.—Charles H. Robb, of Vermont, now assistant attorney general to succeed Henry M. Hoyt, appointed solicitor general of the department of justice. Mr. Robb, of Vermont, was a factor in the post office investigations leading up to the arrest of Machen.

In Memory of Gen. St. Clair.

Washington, March 14.—The senate passed a bill to appropriate $25,000 for the construction of a monument at Ft. Recovery, O., commemorative of Gen. St. Clair and his army, which was massacred at that point by the Indians more than a century ago.

Advance 49 Post Offices.

Washington, March 14.—There will be 49 fourth-class post offices advanced to the presidential class April 1. They include: Indiana, Brownstown, Mooresville and Odon; Kentucky, Corbin and Morehead; Ohio, Creston and Flushing.

All the steel to be used in the construction of the Havana docks is being made at Pottsville, Pa.

TROOPS SENT HOME.

Seven Companies of Militia Leave Springfield, O.

Springfield, O., March 14.—It has been decided by the authorities here and at Columbus that the remaining seven companies of state militia, which were called here by recent race riots, may be safely dispensed with, and all the troops accordingly left here Monday morning. All these companies belong to the Second Infantry, O. N. G.

The city was thronged all day Sunday with strangers who have carried away with them relics from the jail, levee district, and the pole on which murderer Dixon was hanged. The pastors of practically all the churches in the city preached on the lessons to be drawn from the lynching and a mass-meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

SENATOR TILLMAN'S ILLNESS.

His Condition is Reported to Be Much Improved.

Washington, March 14.—Senator Tillman, who for a week has had serious trouble with his throat, was reported to be very much improved Sunday night and the confident expectation is expressed that he will be able to leave the city for the south during the present week for a period of recuperation. The marked improvement is due to the relief experienced from the lancing of another abscess. The senator swallows readily now and is able to converse without difficulty. Sunday morning the senator suffered extreme pain, its intensity being greater than any he had experienced since the throat affection first manifested itself, but Sunday's operation ended the pain.

CHAIRMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Locomotive Engineers Will Meet in Chicago Next Saturday.

Chicago, March 14.—Locomotive engineers from all parts of the country, Canada and Mexico will meet in Chicago next Saturday and form a general chairman's association. The new association, like those of the firemen, trainmen, conductors and other railroad brotherhoods, will be made up of the general chairmen of the adjustment committees of the various railroad systems organized by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, now numbering 100 railroad systems on the North American continent. This meeting is the outcome of a preliminary conference in St. Louis January 23.

THE ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.

Program for the Opening Ceremonies Will Be Announced Soon.

St. Louis, March 14.—The program for the inauguration ceremonies opening the Louisiana purchase exposition, on Saturday, April 30, will probably be officially announced within the next day or two. The opening celebration will be exclusively an exposition affair, as to the participants, and will be confined to the grounds. There will be a parade, but the line of march will be inside the grounds. After the parade the ceremonies will be held in the plaza of St. Louis. The program, it is estimated, will have been fulfilled by noon, at which time the exposition will be formally declared open.

PORT ARTHUR.

The City Terribly Damaged By the Shells of the Japanese.

London, March 14.—In a dispatch from Che Foo, dated March 12, a correspondent of the Daily Mail describes an inspection of Port Arthur made on the 11th inst. from a boat. The new city seemed to be on fire; three columns of smoke were ascending from it. The broad hill fort appeared to have suffered terribly, the defenses were shattered and the earthworks torn up. No guns were visible. The line of forts on the Tigers' Tail also appeared to have suffered damage. At sunrise no sign of life could be seen anywhere, and Port Arthur looked like a city of death.

DELUGE OF WATER SUBSIDES.

The Susquehanna River Flood Has Passed Into History.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 14.—The vast deluge of water for the past week in the Susquehanna river has passed into history and Sunday night the stream in this section had fallen to less than 18 feet above low water mark. The steam railroad companies and various street car lines expect to resume running on schedule time some time Monday, though it will take weeks to repair their tracks and put them in good running order again.

Mayking, Ky., March 14.—Clabe Sturgill and Felix Wayne, of Columbus, O., were killed in mine No. 10 at Hagan, in the Southwest Virginia coal fields, Saturday.

CAREER OF CRIME.

Gustave Marx Under Sentence of Death in Chicago Makes a Startling Confession.

TRAIN ROBBERY MYSTERY CLEARED

Says He Was One of Three Who Held Up the C. & N. Express Train at Tower W.

In a Foot Note to His Confession the Car Barn Bandit Admits the Killing of Five Men During His Career.

Chicago, March 14.—Gustave Marx, one of the three car barn bandits now under sentence of death, declared in a confession made Sunday that he was one of three men who held up the Chicago & Northwestern express train at Tower W, near Dekalb, four years ago. The crime, which has passed into history as one of the most desperate ever committed in or about Chicago, has never been fastened upon any one of the many suspects arrested, and the identity of the bandits has remained a mystery to the police until now.

Marx says both his confederates in the crime are dead and refuses to give their names. One of them, he declares, "Died with his boots on." The railway authorities admitted a loss of $102,000 by the robbery. Marx says the robbers secured only $8,000, the rest of the money having been destroyed by the explosion of dynamite used to crack the safe.

In a sort of foot note to this startling confession, Marx admits the killing of five men in his career of crime.

"Besides John B. Johnson, killed at the car barns, Detective Quinn, killed at the time of my arrest, and Otto Bauder, whom Roeski is generally supposed to have killed, I have killed two other men," said Marx.

"Eight years ago Neidermeier and I went to Janesville, Wis., to rob a train and hid our dynamite alongside the track. A trackwalker, or railway detective, I have never learned which, came upon us and asked us what we were doing there. I shot him and we threw his body into the Rock river. The other man whom I killed I had done criminal work with in Michigan. I met him at Camp Goldfield, Col., when Neidermeier and I were there last fall. He talked too much about me and I killed him and left his body lying in the suburbs of the camp. These crimes can be verified by the police."

YOUNG MAN UNDER ARREST.

He is Identified as a Counterfeiter Well Known to the Officials.

Boston, March 14.—A young man under arrest here charged with swindling postage stamp dealers and collectors was identified Sunday by Secret Service Agent Joseph Murphy, of St. Louis, as R. P. H. Wolle, a counterfeiter well known to the secret service bureau. When arrested Wolle gave the name of Albert Roth, but later admitted his identity. Wolle brought to this city a bogus collection of stamps, which, if genuine, would have a value of $10,000.

His most notable crime was discovered early in 1900, when he got into trouble with the federal authorities by raising the denominations of bank notes. Convicted of the offense in St. Louis, he was sentenced to the state penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo., for five years.

While a prisoner Wolle managed to advertise for rare stamps and did a considerable business with collectors. To his advertisement he signed his convict number "3333" and received his mail in care of Box 47, the prison post office box. He conducted business in this way for some time before his methods were detected by the prison authorities.

RECEIVED BY MINISTER SQUIERS.

The Members of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

Havana, March 14.—The members of the American Institute of mining engineers, who, with their wives and families are touring the West Indies, on board the Hamburg-American line steamer Prinzessin Victoria Louise, were entertained at a reception Sunday at the residence of United States Minister Squiers, at Mariano, a suburb of Havana.

Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, who accompanied Adm. Dewey to Santo Domingo, on board the U. S. S. Mayflower, is staying at the Squiers home. He is to leave Monday for Washington on the Mayflower.

St. Louis, March 14.—Thirty sailors picked from Italy's navy will arrive in St. Louis Monday to take up their duties as World's fair guards at the World's fair.

The Legislature has passed a law making adultery the only ground for divorce. Newport lawyers want the Governor to veto the bill. It would no doubt interfere to some extent with their business.

The cure for lynching is to do away with the cause. As long as there are "miscarriages" of justice there will be lynchings. The people will stand so much and no more, and then meet out vengeance on wrong doers. In the last analysis are they to be blamed? As long as juries prove false to their oaths, and officials be more concerned about building their political fences than fearlessly executing the laws, so long shall we be humiliated and disgraced in the eyes of the civilized world by the horrible outbreaks of popular fury Springfield, O., gave us last week.

"LIAR" and "scoundrel" are some of the choice epithets hurled at Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow by members of Congress whom he criticised in his report of the investigation of affairs in the Postoffice Department. He has them going sure enough, and as the BULLETIN predicted they will have his scalp if it is gettable. But here is an interesting development of the affair. A special from Washington City says:

There is a growing impression among that very large number of Republican members of Congress who are supporting Roosevelt under protest that the Bristow report indicting members was sent to Congress really at the instance of the President through the Postmaster General. The President is against a general investigation of the Postoffice Department. Further investigation he knows, as does every one else, will simply uncover further Republican rascality. Strange as it may seem the President expects to make the postoffice frauds and the investigation one of his strongest campaign cards. Of course little is to be said about the frauds per se, but the investigation is to be made the text of continued sermons on civic virtue. By decrying the corruption of his own administration the President reasons that the people will lose sight of that corruption.

The bringing of the President into the affair makes it all the more interesting. Mr. Roosevelt, however, shouldn't hide behind Bristow.

—Cynthiana Democrat: "Miss Amy Garnett of Maysville has been the charming guest of Miss Carrie Colvin the past week."

—Mrs. Margaret Murphy, of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, is suffering from apoplexy and at last accounts was in a serious condition.

—Hon. William B. Mathews, Jr., of Los Angeles has been visiting his father, Mr. W. B. Mathews, and his brother, Postmaster Clarence Mathews, the past few days.

Why He Kept Quiet.

"I don't believe that there is such a thing as a fool killer in the world," declared Mrs. Muggins in the course of a family debate which had become somewhat acrimonious.

"The remark is rather irrelevant to the matter in hand," rejoined Mr. Muggins. "Still I'd like to know the grounds for your disbelief."

"Would you? Well, Charles Augustus Muggins, if there were such a thing as a fool killer you would never have lived to be thirty-five years old."—Pittsburg Gazette.

TRAGEDY AT RIPLEY.

Report That a Young Man Murdered His Sweetheart by Cutting Her Throat.

The authorities of Ripley are searching for a young man named Albert Kelch. Kelch has been courting a young lady named Mathews, living at Red Oak. Last Thursday they quarreled and he returned to his place of work in Adams County. Saturday he drew all his pay and left, telling his employer he might not return for some time.

Going to Ripley he hired a horse and buggy Saturday evening, drove to the young lady's home and induced her to take a ride with him.

The buggy was returned to the stable during the night and Sunday morning a ladies' hat and cloak was found in it, and the rig was covered with blood. One report states that her body was found under a culvert in the country, her throat having been cut. Another report this morning is that neither Kelch nor the young lady has been found.

The belief is general, though, that a terrible crime has been committed.

BADLY HURT.

Miss Mary Frogge Falls From a Second-Story Porch.

Miss Mary Frogge, who is employed at the home of Rev. Dr. Waller, met with a serious accident Sunday afternoon. She had called on her sister who is employed at the home of Mrs. O. H. P. Thomas near by.

The two young ladies were standing on a second story porch in the rear, when the railing against which Miss Mary was leaning gave way and she fell about twelve feet, striking on a brick walk, sustaining serious injuries to her face, neck and head. Her escape from instant death was a narrow one.

Sunday morning Harry Barnes, colored, was going out the Germantown pike when he found a pistol opposite the home of Mr. Henry Pogue. Near the weapon there was a pool of blood and a whisky bottle. Mr. Sam Rosser, the dairyman, drove up just after Barnes found the articles and he brought the negro to Maysville, and reported the case to the authorities. A pistol shot was heard in that neighborhood Saturday night, but the affair is shrouded in mystery.

A resume of Gibbs' dramatization of "Paul Revere" in view of the title would be superfluous; suffice to suggest that one who has read the poem is familiar with the play. It is in four acts, and the scenic mounting is superb. The old church with its gray tower, the flickering light placed in the belfry, telling the impatient rider to carry the warning, the dash across the country, the uprising of the patriots are vividly realistic. Mr. Richard Buhler in the title role will be supported by a large and excellent company. An entire car-load of scenery is used to give this play.

The Task For St. Patrick's Day

There is a popular superstition that the 17 of March is the right day to plant Sweet Peas. The main thing, probably, is to plant as soon as settled weather comes. This year—

No need to watch dates.
No need to send an order away.
No need to risk getting poor seed.
The best varieties of Sweet Peas grown are here ready for you. You can get just the amount you want just when wanted. These are Landreth's Seeds.

We will have everything in the line of Flower seeds at grower's prices this year.

A BIG SALE

"Big" is the best word we know to describe this sale.

Big in quality—no woman need be afraid of buying a single garment that looks better than it is.

Big in quantity—we never prepared so extensively, as we lacked room for display in the old store. Roughly speaking five thousand garments are on our tables to-day or ready to be taken from the shelves as fast as we have space for them.

Big in economies—start with the 12½ corset covers, the 25c. drawers, the 50c. petticoats—each is the best at the price you'll find anywhere, in cloth, size, trimming, making—and so on right through the list until you reach the finest lingerie.

Come in and be convinced.

It only takes 250 stamps to fill a book and this sale offers magnificent possibilities for stamp collecting. New premiums are being added every week. Be sure to see them.

An opportunity for the men folk. If there are seventy-five men in Maysville needing Umbrellas this lot should go as fast as seventy-five men can be waited on. The best way to judge an Umbrella is to see it, which we cordially invite you to do. Worth $2.25, $2.50 and $3.
FRIDAY'S SALE PRICE, $1.49

AT LAST

Our new Skirts are here. We sell 90 per cent of the Skirts sold in Maysville. The Skirt business is one of our hobbies. We honestly believe we will sell every Skirt that's sold in Maysville this Spring if every lady looks at our line. It is the most beautiful line we have ever seen. Can't resist, said a lady as she saw us taking them out of the box, and even before the prices were on she was on her way home with one under her arm. DO YOU WANT A SKIRT? Look everywhere; we know who will sell you.
(See window display).

Spring Jackets.

The nobby kind are here only—$6.25 to $13.95.

NOTIONS.

A full new line just received—all the things you can think of and a great many you don't think of—we do, though.

J. HENRY PECOR.

MRS. BERT HOLLIDAY.

Death Darkens Another Home and Claims The Loved Wife—Funeral This Afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. Bert A. Holliday sympathize with him in the loss of his wife, whose death occurred last Saturday. She had been ill several months of consumption.

Mrs. Holliday was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McKibben and was in her thirty-first year. She was a member of the Central Presbyterian Church and was a woman of exemplary character.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home in East Sixth street with services by Dr. J. C. Molloy. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

MR. W. A. TALIAFERRO.

Well-Known and Highly-Respected Farmer Dies at His Home Near Chatham.

A telephone message this morning announced the sudden death of Mr. W. A. Taliaferro at his home near Chatham, Bracken County, last night.

Mr. Taliaferro was about seventy-five years old and was one of Bracken's most highly respected citizens. His wife was a Miss Pinckard, a sister of Mrs. J. B. Burgess of this city. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. C. D. Asbury. Mr. Taliaferro was well-known throughout this county.

His death was probably caused by an attack of heart disease. He was taken suddenly ill last night, and died before a physician could reach him.

WIDE OPEN

Would the City be Under a New Ruling of the Police Judge.

Says the Law Requiring Saloons to be Closed on Sunday is Unconstitutional—Mayor Ignores Decision.

Under a ruling of Judge Whitaker in the Police Court Saturday, the law requiring saloons to be closed on Sunday is unconstitutional, and if the decision holds good Maysville will have to be classed among the "wide open" cities where no respect is paid for the Sabbath.

The decision was rendered in the case against Mitchell & Burgoyne and Thomas Ryan, charged with keeping their saloons open on Sunday. The alleged offense was committed three weeks ago. Judge Phister appeared as attorney for the accused, while City Attorney Wood represented the Commonwealth.

The warrants were issued under section 1303 of the Kentucky statutes which provides a penalty of from $10 to $50 fine for such an offense. It is this law, which has been a Kentucky statute for a half century, which Judge Whitaker decided is unconstitutional and the warrants were dismissed.

Under instructions from Mayor Stallcup, the City Attorney will appeal the case, so that the question may be definitely settled.

The Mayor also instructed the police to arrest any and all saloon keepers caught violating the Sunday law and to take them before Squire Dressel or some other Justice of the Peace for trial.

Jasper Wallingford has moved to Portsmouth.

We do not have to say it ourselves. Others say it for us that there are few stores in the largest of cities that excel us in the line of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods that we carry.

For this coming season our ambition to cater from the medium to the very choicest of trade has induced us to put in lines of Shirts, Neckwear, Halfhose and Hats of higher quality than we have ever had in stock. WE WANT YOU TO SEE THEM.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

To the mothers who are just a little more than particular about their children's outfit we want to say that as soon as the weather gets right for the little fellows spring suits to come and see the new line of ultra fashionable Children's Suits that we have brought on for this spring's trade, and prices fully 20 per cent. less than what you would pay for them away from home.

We respectfully solicit an examination of these goods.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

Review of Business on the Breaks at Cincinnati the Past Week.

The transactions the past week show a slight decrease in the offerings of both new and old, while the receipts were nearly the same.

The market, taken as a whole, may be said to have been a very satisfactory one to shippers, especially for new tobaccos. There was more uniformity in the price of standards for all grades than characterized previous week's sales, and while some irregularity was manifest on Thursday and Friday, this was due more to poor light than to any real shrinkage in values. Nearly all types in red and bright goods were fairly represented and as during previous week there was a fine proportion of the better grades between 10c and 14c, with a few bds. of fine to fancy leaf that sold from 15c to 16½c.

The live interest in the market, however, centered in the old tobaccos, and with sharp bidding and good competition between the independent manufacturers and combine buyers the market was a strong and active one throughout the week.

The speculative demand was not much in evidence last week, but there was some buying and much inquiry for export types.
